

Home > Subscription Center

> Join us for "Licensing your IP: The why, when, and how to get started"

Join us for "Licensing your IP: The why, when, and how to get started"

Published on: 05/21/2026 13:33 PM

USPTO Alert

Register for "Licensing your IP: The why, when, and how to get started"

Join us for the virtual panel discussion "Licensing your IP: The why, when, and how to get started," on Wednesday, May 27, from 1-1:55 p.m. MT / 3-3:55 p.m. ET. We'll focus on why licensing may be an option for your intellectual property and the value it can provide to your business.

Things you'll learn:

- How licensing works
- What to know about working with a Tech Transfer Office
- Why a business would choose to license

Featured speakers include:

- Sean Wilkerson, Northwest Frontier Community Engagement Office Acting Director, USPTO
- Gillian Fenton, Executive Director LST Strategies LLC and Co-Chair of the Education Committee, Licensing Executives Society LES (USA and Canada)
- Robert Held, CEO, Licensing Executives Society LES (USA and Canada)
- Casey Wegner, Senior Technology Manager, Montana State University
- Brock LaMeres, President, Resilient Computing

Register today