The Importance of Joining a 4-H Club

4-H Clubs are the backbone of the 4-H program! We highly encourage you to be an active part of a 4-H club while participating in 4-H activities and events. The entire family should be attending and participating in club meetings and activities; however, Clubs are not required.

This is your opportunity to learn about parliamentary procedure and experience youth in action. You will get updates on club and county activities and reminders about deadlines.

Clubs have varying expectations for members and their parents; be sure you know what those expectations are in your club.

Improve your community!

Every club generally has at least one community service project they complete each year. Members and their families take pride in seeing the results of this project and enjoy the teamwork required to complete it.

Have fun!

Games and activities are generally part of every club meeting; clubs will have special fun events throughout the year.

Meet new friends!

You will truly get to know your fellow members which can create lifelong friendships with entire families.

Youth/Adult Partnerships!

Members learn to appreciate their fellow 4-H members of all ages, working with them as partners on a team.

Family Opportunity!

Whole families can be involved in 4-H together. While each member can pursue their own special interests and set their individual goals.

Fundraising!

Most clubs have at least one fundraiser per year. Members learn that working together toward a common goal can be fun and fulfilling.

Fundraising & Community Service

Why do we fundraise in 4-H?

1. Program Support: Fundraisers help cover the costs of the many programs and activities that make 4-H so impactful. This includes purchasing supplies for science experiments, art projects, agricultural activities, and more. Without fundraising, many of these valuable programs would not be possible.
2. Youth Development Opportunities: Fundraising allows us to offer scholarships, grants, and financial assistance to 4-H members. This ensures that all youth, regardless of their financial situation, can participate fully in 4-H and take advantage of its opportunities.
3. Community Engagement: Fundraising events are more than just a way to raise money; they are also a way to engage with the community. These events help raise awareness about 4-H, build community support, and foster a sense of unity and involvement among members, volunteers, and supporters.
4. Enhanced Experiences: The funds raised go towards enhancing the 4-H experience for all members. This can include funding for field trips, special guest speakers, advanced training sessions, and other enrichment activities that provide valuable learning experiences.
5. Volunteer Support: Fundraisers help cover the cost of essential volunteer background screenings, ensuring a safe and supportive environment for our youth. They also provide funds for basic club supplies, which are necessary for the smooth operation of club meetings and activities.
6. Recognition and Celebration: Fundraising helps pay for events like the annual awards banquet, where we celebrate the achievements of our 4-H members and volunteers. This recognition is important for motivation and morale, highlighting the hard work and dedication of everyone involved.
7. Sustainability: Consistent fundraising efforts ensure the long-term sustainability of 4-H programs. By generating funds regularly, we can plan ahead, expand our programs, and continue to provide high-quality experiences for our members year after year.

In addition to fundraisers, community donations play a vital role in supporting 4-H. Local businesses, organizations, and individuals often contribute to 4-H because they believe in its mission and see the positive impact it has on youth and the community. These donations can come in the form of monetary gifts, in-kind donations, or sponsorships for specific events and programs.

Fundraising is an essential part of how 4-H operates and thrives. While the university and county provide some foundational support, the diverse and enriching programs that 4-H offers are made possible through the hard work and generosity of our community. By participating in fundraisers, you are directly contributing to the growth and success of 4-H, ensuring that we can continue to provide valuable opportunities for youth development and community engagement.

Popa. (2024). Re: University of Florida Extension Service Blogs: Why Do We Have These Fundraisers?

<https://blogs.ifas.ufl.edu/charlotteco/2024/11/11/why-do-we-have-to-do-these-fundraisers/>

Why Community Service Matters in 4-H

One of the core goals of 4-H is helping members become engaged, responsible citizens, and a big part of that journey is giving back through community service. When 4-H members take part in community service, they not only improve the world around them, but they also gain new skills, build character, and develop empathy for others. Let's explore why community service is such an essential part of 4-H and look at some meaningful project ideas for clubs!

Why Community Service Matters in 4-H

Community service helps 4-H members:

- Build Character and Compassion: By helping others, youth learn about the importance of kindness, empathy, and understanding.
- Learn Responsibility and Leadership: Taking on projects — big or small — encourages responsibility, dependability, and leadership.
- Connect with Their Community: Community service projects help 4-H members become active in their communities and foster a sense of pride and belonging.
- Strengthen Skills for the Future: From teamwork to planning and problem-solving, service projects provide hands-on experience with skills that will benefit them in all aspects of life.

Community service is a rewarding, essential part of 4-H. Through service projects, members not only support their communities but also grow as individuals, making a positive impact along the way. Whether it's planting trees, serving meals, or simply spending time with those who need companionship, every 4-H member has the power to make a difference. So, get together with your 4-H club, choose a project, and see the positive impact you can create!

4-H Projects

- ✿ Every member must enroll in and complete a minimum of one project per year.
- ✿ 4-H is based on the Experiential Learning Model. Projects are hands-on educational activities.

- ✿ Although members can choose any number of projects, please encourage them to enroll in a realistic number of projects that they can complete each year.
- ✿ Project Workshops are conducted by project or county leaders. These opportunities are created to enhance and expand the learning opportunities of 4-H youth. Time and dates vary throughout the year depending on the project area. Please check the website and newsletter.

- ✿ There is a huge variety of projects for members to choose from and they can be viewed in the Clover publication, updated each year at (click on your preferred formatting under the red “Add to Cart” button): <https://www.montana.edu/extension/4h/projects/clover.html>

- ✿ Project Requirements: Due to safety concerns, some projects have age limitations. The following project areas follow different age guidelines:
 - Green Horse and Colt-to-Maturity (Horse) – Must be at least 12 years old (and completed levels 1-3 of Horsemanship)
 - Shooting Sports – Must be at least 9 years old (as of October 1) Additional requirements on some disciplines.
 - Cloverbuds - Ages 5-7 (as of October 1) May only participate in Poultry, Rabbit, Cat, Horseless Horse, and the Cloverbud Projects.

- ✿ Project books are available in the Extension Office. During registration, you pay a fee for one book per year per project. (Most project books will be completed in 3 years)

Record Keeping

Record keeping is required to complete the 4-H year. Records books and Project Journals are checked and signed by your Project Leaders before Fair (check the newsletter and calendar for specific dates). Club Organizational Leaders will sign the "My 4-H Year" prior to the Livestock and Indoor Interviews Fair each year.

If a member wants to advance to higher levels in a project they must complete the records and project requirements for that project. Please see Record Book and Project Book Guidelines for more information.

Green 4-H folders are available to purchase at the Extension Office to keep your records organized. It is not required to have your records in one of these specific binders, but they do need to be kept in some kind of folder and kept organized.

Record books consist of three types of forms:

My 4-H Year	Non-Animal Project	Animal Project
-Complete one per year -Focus on club and extracurricular, non-4- H project activities	-Complete one per year per non-animal project -Record any goals & activities directly related to your project	-Complete one per year per animal project -Record and goals & activities directly related to your project

Helpful Hints for Project Books & Record Book Forms

- Take 10 minutes each month to keep them updated.
- Keep a family calendar on which you record ALL activities; use it as a reference when updating your record books.
- Members should take record books to club meetings and project workshops.
- ZSuite is a great online record book option. Check it out at 4h.zsuite.org

Completing a 4-H Project: Record Book and Project Book Guidelines

- ✿ Completing a project is a combination of your record book forms and project books.

Criteria for Complete 4-H Record Book Sheets

- _____ Enroll in and complete at least one project (check project book requirements).
- _____ Identify and achieve at least three (3) S.M.A.R.T. goals in “My 4-H Year” AND in the Financial Project Record Journal(s) for each Project you enroll in.
What are SMART Goals? S - Specific M - Measurable A - Achievable R - Realistic T- Timely
- _____ Complete all sections of the “My 4-H Year” journal form, and have your club leader sign it prior to Project Interviews.
- _____ Try to participate in at least three additional learning activities during the 4-H year and record them in your journal (i.e. speeches, demonstrations, judging, public presentations, etc.).
- _____ List any awards and honors received both in 4-H and outside of 4-H.
- _____ Complete the “Project and Financial Journal” for each project in which you are enrolled. (Animal or Non-animal)
- _____ If an animal is owned, keep records for it on the “Financial Animal Journal” according to the type of project carried (i.e. breeding, market, companion animal, etc.)
- _____ You may include other things to personalize your book (i.e. photos, articles, ribbons, memorabilia, and personal stories about your 4-H experience).

Criteria for Complete 4-H Project Books

- ✿ Each 4-H project has unique and specific guidelines for project completion. Read the Clover project selection guide or the beginning of your project book to find out more. For most, the following general guidelines apply:
 - Complete a minimum of seven activities found in the project book within the 4-H year.
 - Complete the appropriate minimum number of required and optional activities in each level within at least three years.
Many will move along more quickly, which is great!
 - If there is no project book, complete a Self-Determined Project Guide available online or from the Extension Office. The project will be completed when the goals and activities set by the youth are complete.

What Happens if I Do Not Complete My Project?

- We aim for youth to self-motivate to complete a project by offering incentives and opportunities to succeed.
- If a project is not completed within the appropriate timeframe, members may retake the project another year to try to complete it.
- Project books and Project Journals must be complete in order to be eligible for county 4-H awards and scholarships and fair participation.

Public Speaking

4-H has a reputation of producing members that are fluent speakers and great communicators. Members learn this skill by participating in their club business meetings, club speeches or demonstrations, Fair interviews, and county competitions like Communications Day, cooking Stir Ups and baking Better Batter Baking competitions. Cloverbuds can begin this tradition with a show and tell at Club meetings and County Communications Day and entering the Fair.

County Communication Day is held each year, usually in February/March. Look for dates and resources in the newsletter and online at <https://www.montana.edu/extension/gallatin/4hevents.html>

Market Animal Projects

4-H members can sell two (2) animal units at the Big Sky Country State Fair. All species count for one (1) animal unit, except beef. Beef is two (2) animal units. Some additional restrictions may apply, check with your species leader. Please carefully note the possession and tagging deadlines for each species, they will be listed in the Market Livestock Contract. These events and deadlines must be followed to enter the Fair.

Thank You Notes: All members that sell an animal at the Big Sky Country State Fair are expected to write their buyer(s) a thank you note. You may have the note ready and give it to your buyer at the livestock sale or send it to them after the Fair.

Market Animal Payments: Your checks will be mailed to the address you used for fair registration. Checks are not provided until all buyers have paid the bank for the animals. Checks are typically available in September.

Promotion & Marketing: The Market Livestock Committee asks that market animal exhibitors contact potential buyers prior to the fair and that they help promote the 4-H/FFA Livestock Sale which begins Friday evening of the Big Sky Country State Fair.

Quality Assurance: This mandatory training helps ensure that you are providing a high-quality product to consumers. All 4-H animal project members (except pocket pets) are required to complete this training once as a junior member (8-13) and again as a senior member (14+) in order to sell an animal at the Big Sky Country State County State Fair. Families will be contacted by the Extension Office and/or project committee. Animal Quality Assurance training does not count toward your project's workshop requirements.
