2023 FACULTY SYMPOSIUM

Tuesday, October 24 • 11:30 a.m. – 1:30 p.m. • Inspiration Hall

SCHOLARSHIP · SERVICE · TEACHING · INTEGRATION

MONTANA STATE UNIVERSITY | Center for Faculty Excellence

A joint initiative of the President's Office, Office of Academic Affairs, Center for Faculty Excellence and Academic Technology and Outreach.

AGENDA

TIME	SUBJECT
11:30 AM	Lunch is available
11:45 AM	Welcome from Provost Mokwa
	Overview of the Symposium Michael Babcock, Director, Center for Faculty Excellence
12:00 PM	Short Presentations (8 min) • The Future is Now: Preparing Students for a World with Generative AI Anne Gibson, Instructor and Marina Calabrese, Instructor, Jake Jabs College of Business & Entrepreneurship • AI Efficiencies: Ways Educators can Use Generative AI to Support Efficiencies and Productivity Nick Lux, Associate Professor, Education • Exploring Ice Patch Archaeology with Chat GPT Craig Lee, Assistant Professor, Sociology & Anthropology
12:30 PM	Discussion Groups Join a discussion group on the following topics: • Incorporating AI into the classroom • Using AI in writing • Developing classroom materials using AI
1:00 PM	Student Panel Session • TJ Dubler (Architecture) • Anna Emmans (English Literature) • Derek Jollie (Physics)
1:30 PM	Closing